

SPARK AAJ

(Matrix Code: SPARKAAJ.00 for StartOver.xyz game.)

DISTINCTION: There are two kinds of bullshit.

NOTES:

Bullshit is what men do. Bullshit is saying things that are not true, but which are nonetheless very, very relevant. Examples of Bullshit are: I will help Tommy with his algebra in the evenings. I will fix the leaking faucet this weekend. I will be home at seven...

Cowshit is what women do. Cowshit is saying things that are very, very true, but which are completely irrelevant. An example of Cowshit is when it is Friday night, the kids are in bed, and the couple walks up the stairs to the bedroom. Inside the bedroom the woman shuts the door, turns to face the man, and says, "You did not even carry up the basket of folded laundry for me."
